BRAKEMAN KILLED.

Lou Marshall, of Linden, a brakeman on train No. 264, Southern Railway, was run over yesterday at Woodstock and instantly killed. His head was crushed one hand cut off, and the other arm broken. The train was backing at the time, and he was struck by the rear car.

If you want a pair of $5, $6 and $7 Shoes and Oxford—last samples—for $2.50 go to John A. Marshall & Bro., 422 King street, this week.

NO END OF FUN.

"The Hood Don't Watch," as presented by Mr. John T. McCaslin at the Opera House last night was the most side-splitting farce comedy ever seen in this city. It made a great hit before an audience which filled the house to its fullest capacity. If applause means anything every one was pleased, for curial calls came as thick and fast that only a lightning calculator could count them. The vaudeville this week is far above the average and changes nightly—there is laughter a plenty and tears not a few sprinkled through the parts portrayed, so ladies with treacherous complexions had better look out, for tears are sad destroyers of the skin, but quite a few of them took chances last night. A big time is promised tonight, the closing engagement of one of the best of vaudeville shows. Mr. McCaslin and the entire stock company will present the screaming farce comedy "Ghost in a Pawn Shop." This will keep you in continuous laughter for thirty minutes.

BURNS COAT AND HAT.

A colored man, who lives in the southern section of this city, while in a state of intoxication and in his anxiety to keep "picketed," with "baited" breath yesterday entered a saloon in the same section and brought those in front of the bar to give him drink. Ascertaining that they were as minus of cash as he was he became disheartened and some of the crowd, no better off than himself, made a wager with him that he would not burn his coat and cap for thirty cents. He accepted the terms, took his coat and hat off and proceeded to the yard, poured gasoline on them and all was soon over. The 30 cents was raised among the bystanders, and after drying it up, the man left the building minus a hat and coat.

BETHANY CHURCH.

At a meeting of the members of Bethany Independent M. P. Church, held last night, the pastor and board of the church made their annual reports to the congregation and elected the following stewards: H. O. Smith, E. N. Pittman, J. T. Harlow, N. S. Greenaway, Robert H. Hancock, Lambert D. Sullivan, Charles Hanzum, J. T. Cook and Frank M. Michelbach. The present pastor, Rev. W. M. Polak, was called for another year. Officials of the church state that the newspaper report of some days ago that this church would apply for admission to membership in the Maryland Conference was wholly unauthorized and incorrect.

IT IS STILL GOOD.

The closing night of the week finds the vaudeville and picture show at the Surplus Theatre just as popular as ever and the crowds just as large. The Vagges, the star bag punchers, were excellent and excited the admiration of all present. George J. Stanley, the impersonator of the anti-bellum darkey, was as fine as ever seen in this city, while Phillips and Gordon, the song and dance artists, are great in their different roles. The pictures are good. There will be a change in the programme tonight. Don't miss the last night of this first class performance.

ALWAYS APPRECIATED.

A good performance is always appreciated by a good judge of first class entertainment. Such is the case with the pictures furnished at the Alexandria Amusement Company nightly. The large crowds which lend their presence to the exhibition always appear fully satisfied when leaving the building. As will be seen by the advertisement of this popular house on this page a fine selection of pictures will be seen tonight. It will do you good to spend an hour here and it will cost you only five cents.

SEWER WORK.

The work of laying sewer pipes on Wolfe street from Royal to Fairfax, which was suspended during the winter months, has been resumed and will be completed during the next few days. It is proposed to continue the sewer down Fairfax street to Wilkes. Signatures of a number of residents on that square announcing their determination to tap the sewer have already been obtained, and a petition asking council to lay the pipes will be presented at the next meeting.

THE MARKET.

There was another limited supply of country produce in market this morning, and prices were, with few exceptions, virtually unchanged. Eggs were firmer, and sold at from 20 to 22 cents per dozen. Some fine dressed poultry was offered at the usual high prices. The supply of green stuff was small. The quotations for fresh fish showed but little variation from those prevailing during the early part of the week.

POLICE COURT.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.] There were three cases on the docket of the Police Court this morning. A white man, who had been arrested for being drunk on the street, was fined $5, another man, charged with disorderly conduct, forfeited his collateral by failing to appear, and a young man, who was charged with non-support of his wife, was dismissed.

RED MEN'S BANQUET.

The spacious dining hall of Messrs. Rammel Bros. was the scene last night of a most enjoyable affair, the occasion being the first annual banquet of Seminole Tribe, No. 35, of Red Men, organized in this city last year. The hall was crowded with its members and a spirit of true freedom, friendship and charity, the cardinal principles of the order, prevailed. The menu, as served by the popular gentlemen, above referred to, could not have been better and the speakers, seemingly, endeavored to surpass their own previous attempts at oratory and wit. This combined with beautifully decorated tables made a deep and lasting impression upon the guests, members and spectators and scenes even beyond the expectations of the gentlemen having the affair in charge. The menu card was unique. The outer cover bore the inscription "First Feast of Seminole Tribe, No. 35, Improved Order of Red Men," then came the insignia of the order with the words expressing its principles, directly beneath a new penny coinage of 1908, Indian head exposed, being attached to the card, followed by the inscription "Hunting Grounds of Alexandria, Reservation of Virginia, Second Sun, Plant Moon, Great Sun Discovery 418." On the inside of the cover appears the menu proper, which consisted of all the delicacies of the season, followed by the toast referred to as "Long talks." The toasts were as follows: "Our Tribe," J. Wm. May; "Our Order," W. S. Nicklin; "Noted Red Men," H. N. Garner; "Patriotism of Redmanship," J. H. Trimmer; "Freedom, Friendship and Charity," L. P. Woodward; "A Prophecy," E. S. Barrett. The elective officers of the tribe are: Sachem, J. Wm. May; Prophet, R. S. Barrett; senior sagamore, A. L. Jameson; junior sagamore, D. E. Robey; keeper of wampum, O. H. May; collector of wampum, E. L. Finks. The committee on arrangements, Messrs. Kenneth W. Ogden, A. Leroy Jameson and Carroll H. May, are receiving congratulations on the manner in which they fulfilled the duties assigned them. Mr. A. L. Jameson, the popular senior sagamore, took a flash light picture of the assemblage during the evening.

D. A. R.

The April meeting of M. Vernon Chapter, D. A. R., was held yesterday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. Eleanor Washington Howard its regent, who presided. The business of the evening principally consisted of the reports of the various committees connected with the unveiling of the tablet at Christ Church on the 23rd of this month the reports being in every way satisfactory. All the arrangements are now about complete which insure the success of this patriotic undertaking of the M. Vernon Chapter. The tickets of admission to Christ Church yard, to which each member of the chapter is entitled for the above occasion, can be obtained by the members from Mrs. George Uhler No. 611 Cameron street, or at the next meeting of the chapter on Wednesday the 14th.

It was stated yesterday that Mr. W. J. Morton was with the committee who called upon President Taft recently and invited him to attend the unveiling ceremonies here on the 23rd. It should have been Mrs. Morton, who is chairman of the invitation committee.

DEATHS.

Mrs. Mary Travers, wife of Mr. Robert A. Travers, died shortly before noon yesterday at her home, 519 Queen street. Mrs. Travers had been a sufferer from blood poisoning. The deceased was fifty-three years old. Besides her husband, she is survived by the following children: Mrs. May Fones and Messrs. John R. Travers and Charles W. Travers. Mrs. Travers was a native of Prince William county, and was a daughter of the late John and Salena McCuen. She had many friends and acquaintances in Alexandria, all of whom will regret to learn of her death.

Mr. Charles Rush, aged about thirty years old, died yesterday afternoon at his home, 1813 Duke street. He had recently been a sufferer from typhoid fever. Mr. Rush is survived by a widow and two children. He was formerly employed in the freight office of the Washington-Southern Railway Company.

ELITE PICTURE COMPANY.

The manager of the Elite Picture Company wishes to inform the people that he will have the best five cent show on tonight ever seen in this city. New and large pictures of historic subjects have been selected and some others of an amusing nature. Besides these pictures Tom Howard will be there for the last time and as he is good you should hear him.

DOUBLE TRACK.

The Southern Railway yesterday put into commission thirty-five miles of double track between South Lynnhurst and Sycamore, which had heretofore been operated in sections. This was started three years ago, and is a part of the improvement above and through Lynnhurst, which is just now being resumed after eighteen months of idleness.

CONTRACT AWARDED.

At Ballston, Alexandria county, the committee of Columbia Lodge of Masons last night opened the bids to erect a temple at Clarendon, Va. Mr. J. D. Knight, contractor of this city, was the successful bidder. The cost of the building will be upwards of $10,000. The work will be started the first of next week.

HANDSOME TABLET.

Mr. John W. McCaslin has eluded for Alexandria Lodge, R. P. O. Elks, a handsome marble tablet with the names of the deceased members of the lodge inscribed thereon, with the date of their death. The work is well executed and shows the skill of an inventive mind. It will be placed in position in the lodge room on Monday.
